

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

If You Are a Profit Participant on a Motion Picture Released by Sony Pictures Entertainment for Home Video, Electronic Sell-Through or Video On Demand, You Could Financially Benefit from a Class Action Settlement

What is This Settlement About?

A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit over how Sony Pictures Entertainment, Inc. (“SPE”) calculated profit participation relating to revenue derived from the sale of Home Videos (e.g. physical copies such as videocassettes, DVDs, and Blu-Ray), Electronic Sell-Through (e.g. digital copies delivered for permanent download such as from iTunes or Amazon), and Video-on-Demand (“VOD”) (e.g. streaming on services like Netflix) on certain motion pictures. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing and the Court has not decided who is right and who is wrong. Instead, the parties decided to settle the dispute.

Am I a Class Member?

You may be a Class Member if you are a person or entity (or their successors-in-interest, assigns, and heirs) who is a party to a “Class Profit Participation Contract” (defined by the Settlement Agreement as a Profit Participation Contract, entered on or before December 31, 1981, that does not include express provisions regarding the calculation of the Profit Participant’s Profit Participation with regard to Home Video Revenue, Electronic Sell-Through Revenue and/or VOD Revenue). To obtain more information regarding whether you are a Class Member, please visit www.SonyHomeVideoSettlement.com, email SonyHVS@AdministratorClassAction.com or call 1-855-400-3443.

What Does the Settlement Provide?

This settlement provides Class Members with a: (1) $5 million Settlement Fund, which will be used to pay recouped profit participants who are already receiving profit participation on their contracts; and (2) $5 million Accounting Relief Fund, which will be used to credit the accounts of unrecouped profit participants who are not yet receiving profit participations on their contracts. You may receive benefits from either or both of these funds if you qualify.
